

Yarmouk University

Faculty of Arts

Master's in History

Program Overview

Department of History is one of the academic departments in the Faculty of Arts. It began to grant the master's degree at the beginning of the academic year 1987/1988, in two tracks: (1) Islamic history and Islamic civilization, and (2) Modern and contemporary history.

Program Vision

- Studying the past to understand the present.
- Connecting the past and present and anticipating the future.
- Excellence at the local, regional and international levels.

Program Mission

- Providing students with exceptional educational experiences.
- Preparing a highly qualified graduates to meet the needs of the job market.
- Conducting distinguished research in historical studies, directing scientific research to serve and advance the community.
- Enhancing the ways of creativity and critical thinking among students.
- Meeting the needs of society in the educational, research, media, and cultural fields.
- Engaging with national, regional, and humanitarian events and activities to ensure the department's presence at these levels.

Program Objectives

- Enhancing the educational process and developing programs and curricula to keep pace with scientific advancements and global developments in various fields of knowledge.
- Excellence in scientific research, supporting it, and directing it to serve the community.
- Encouraging students to engage in analytical and critical thinking, knowledge, and good citizenship, while fostering national identity and personal development.
- Sustainable professional development for faculty members.
- Fostering active cultural and scientific exchange with similar departments both locally and internationally.

Program Learning Outcomes

- To master general historical knowledge.
- To understand trends and skills in historical research and be proficient in various historical research methodologies.
- To contribute to the service of the local community.
- To be able to connect history with other sciences
- To make use of information technology and modern media and apply them in the field of history.

Credit Hours and Tuition Fees

The program consists of 33 credit hours.

The tuition fees for Jordanian students: 70 JOD per credit hour

The tuition fees for international students: 225USD per credit hour

Contact Information

Phone: 027211111

Ext: 2355

E-Mail: History.dept@yu.edu.jo