

Yarmouk University

Faculty of Sharia and Islamic Studies

Ph.D. in Islamic Economic and Banking

Program Overview

The Department of Islamic Economics and Banking was established on the 8th of January 2001 to meet the needs for specialists in Islamic economics and Islamic banking who combine knowledge in economics and Sharia sciences. The importance of the program increased locally and globally after the growth of this science and the emergence of applied models. The department began teaching the doctoral program in 2001.

Program Objectives

The program aims to prepare qualified human resources compatible with the needs of the labor market in the banking and economic field, and capable of keeping pace with economic and banking developments, in accordance with the values of authenticity and modernity. It also aims to prepare human resources proficient in the principles, theories and advanced analytical tools related to Islamic economics and banking topics, and who have the ability to propose Islamic financial tools and products that combine legitimacy and economic and social efficiency.

Program Importance

A pioneering program in graduating specialized academic competencies in economics and Islamic banking in accordance with the values of authenticity, modernity, and moderation. It is distinguished by being one of the most prestigious programs in the world, and it is distinguished by combining the specializations of Islamic economics and Islamic banking.

Targeted Group and Accepted Majors

The program targets graduates of master's degrees in Sharia and Business faculties. The program accepts graduates with a master's degree in economics and Islamic banking, Islamic banking, Islamic economics, Fiqh and its principles, economics, finance and banking, and accounting.

Job Areas

The graduate can work in university teaching, Islamic banks, Islamic financial institutions, and Sharia supervisory committees.

Credit Hours and Tuition Fees

The student studies in the program 54 credit hours, including submitting a thesis equivalent to 18 credit hours.

The one-hour fee is 100 Jordanian dinars for a Jordanian student and 350 US dollars for a foreign student.

Study Plan Overview

The study plan focuses on Islamic economic theory and Islamic banking. It consists of 21 compulsory credit hours and 15 optional credit hours.

Contact Information

E-mail: Islamiceco.dept@yu.edu.jo

Phone: 00962 27211111

Ext: 5512